

Compensation and Benefits

Ensuring competitive compensation and benefits, IFC applies the World Bank Group's compensation framework. Competitive compensation is essential to attract and retain a highly qualified, diverse staff. Salaries for staff recruited in Washington, D.C. are based on the U.S. market. Salaries for staff hired outside the U.S. are based on local competitiveness as determined by independent local market surveys. Given the World Bank Group's status as a multilateral organization, staff salaries are determined on a net-of-tax basis.

As of June 30, 2024, the salary structure (net of tax) and annual average net salaries/benefits for World Bank Group staff were as follows:

Staff Salary Structure and Benefits (Washington, D.C.)

Note: Because WBG staff, other than U.S. citizens, usually are not required to pay income taxes on their WBG compensation, the salaries are set on a net-of-tax basis. These salaries are generally equivalent to the after-tax take-home pay of the employees of the comparator organizations and firms from which WBG salaries are derived. Only a relatively small minority of staff will reach the upper third of the salary range.

a. Includes medical, life, and disability insurance; accrued termination benefits; and other non-salary benefits. Excludes tax allowances.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The salary of the President of the World Bank Group is determined by the Board of Directors. The salary of the IFC Managing Director is determined based on the U.S. WB salary structure and positioned in the salary range for the GK grade. The executive salary structure is reviewed annually and updated based on the U.S. labor market movement or the IMF's projected U.S. CPI movement, whichever is lower.

The compensation of our executive leadership is transparent. IFC MD Makhtar Diop received an annual salary of $452,570 net of taxes.

Funding

IFC raises funds in the international capital markets for private sector lending and to safeguard IFC's triple-A credit ratings by ensuring adequate liquidity. Issuances include benchmark bonds in core currencies such as U.S. dollars, thematic issuances to promote strategic priorities such as addressing climate change, and issuances in emerging-market currencies to support the development of capital markets. Most of IFC's lending is denominated in U.S. dollars, but we borrow in many currencies to diversify access to funding, reduce borrowing costs, and encourage the growth of local capital markets.
